

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday March 8, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Legislature to allow open conference committees

MSU group supports flag change

Flooding in county worsens

Editorials

Report: WorldCom could sell

Delay not blamed on Friede Goldman

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Sport license fee war closer to resolution

Winning gamblers face closer scrutiny

Column: Mississippi has folks uneasy in the Big Easy

Editorial: Major overhaul is long overdue in direction of MDOT

Another layoff hits state

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Lawmakers open committee meetings

Clark says Columbus land leases rob school tax money

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Opening conference committees a victory for open government

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Public isn't served by paper-thin meetings law

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Masonite Corp. cuts 310 jobs at Laurel plant

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Emmerich Inc. purchases two newspapers

Editorial for Wednesday, March 7, 2001

Jack Elliott: State may get two Jackson arenas

USA Today

Mississippi art is alive, well